Collaboration with Targeted Populations in Mind

Build support through collaborations with local agencies and organizations, which can help your stakeholders and funders view the library's role in a different light. We know we're more than books, storytimes and summer reading, but do they? Harness the power of an effective collaboration to gain a stronger foundation in your community, and to attract new patrons who might not otherwise walk through your doors.

Representatives from Livingston County for the Aging and Wayne County Literacy Volunteers will discuss their agencies, collaborations, and ideas. Andrea Tillinghast-Thompson from Red Jacket will discuss how she has used a collaboration to build successful funding support while providing needed information to her community.

After the system meeting:

- CLAC (Central Library Advisory Committee) meeting – noon

AND

- Youth Yak – Noon-1:30 p.m.
