

System Meeting Agenda

September 20, 2013

@Pioneer Library System Office, Canandaigua

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 9:00 – 9:30 | Birds of a Feather: Lindsay Stratton – Know Your OWWL Policies
An introduction to the new OWWL Policies page and discussion of existing policies, policy gaps, policy questions, and suggestions for improving communication. |
| 9:30 – 10:15 | Announcements |
| 10:15 – 10:30 | Break |
| 10:30 a.m. | Program: |

Using JobNow to Help Your Patrons

Do you have patrons coming to the library looking for help with any of the following?

- Writing a resume or cover letter
- Finding local job listings
- Preparing for the US Citizenship Test
- Practicing for an upcoming interview
- Passing the GED

You have the tools available to assist with these questions and more right at your desktop! JobNow provides online, live job assistance including expert resume help, interview preparation and career coaching. Come learn the ins and outs of JobNow with Chris Finger, who will show you how to help your patrons get the most from this powerful resource. Pat Finnerty will also tell us about some upcoming JobNow system-wide promotion being funded through a New York State Adult Literacy.

Facilitated by Chris Finger and Pat Finnerty

After the system meeting

- Youth Yak – Summer Reading Wrap Up
- CLAC – Central Library Advisory Committee meeting