My Perfect Program

MR. PERFECT

By: Christopher James Saavedra Finger

CIL 2014- Nowhere Near Perfect...

But now for the good news

Every program I attended or heard about had ingredients for a perfect program stew.

Ingredient 1- Practical Skill Building

Who got it right?

Drupal in a Day

Ingredient 1- Practical Skill Building

What went wrong?

Technology trouble

Ingredient 2- Contingency Planning

Who got it right?

Re-Imagining the Library Website Experience

Ingredient 2- Contingency Planning

What went wrong?

Need more passion in the presentation.

Ingredient 3- Engaging Instructor

Who got it right?

Ready for Change?
8 Steps!

Ingredient 3- Engaging Instructor

What went wrong?

Too short to build skills

Ingredient 4- Longer Than 2 Hours

Who got it right?

Drupal in a Day

Ingredient 4- Longer Than 2 Hours

What went wrong?

Well technology, but it was too long too.

Ingredient 5- Work with a partner

Who got it right?

Hacking the Librarian

Ingredient 5- Work with a partner

What went wrong?

No focus on the end product

Ingredient 6- Homework [yeah I said it]

Who got it right?

Ingredient 6- Homework [yeah I said it]

What went wrong?

No one assigned any.

Ingredient 7- Incentives [prizes!]

What went wrong?

Prizes only work if you can stomach the sales pitch.

Ingredient 7- Incentives [prizes!]

What went wrong?

Prizes only work if you can stomach the sales pitch.

Ingredient 8- Colleagues

Who got it right?

PLS

Ingredient 8- Colleagues

What went wrong?

Ron snores!

[just kidding]

Thank you PLS!
