

Name, Grade & School: _____

Questions

What are you looking to get out of this experience?

Do you think that older people learn differently when it comes to technology, and, if so, how?
(No wrong answers)

Tell us about a time that you helped someone to understand a concept they were struggling with or solve a problem. How did you help them? This can be from volunteer experience, school, or home.

What do you think your technical strengths are? For example, are you really good with a particular device, program, game, etc?

How would you handle a tutoring situation, in which the person you were helping became frustrated?

If you could eat one food while watching one movie with your favorite fictional character, what food would it be? Which movie? Who is the fictional character?

Do you have any questions for us?