A photograph of a forest with tall, thin trees and a body of water visible through the canopy. The word "reflection" is overlaid in a white box.

reflection

A close-up photograph of a pine cone resting on a bed of dry pine needles. The pine cone is dark brown and shows the characteristic overlapping scales. The background is a soft-focus forest floor with more pine needles and some blurred green foliage and light spots. A white rectangular box with the word "curiosity" in black lowercase letters is positioned on the left side of the image.

In November, what does a day in your community look like?

- How do people feel?
 - What are they longing for?
 - What are people needing at this time?

What can your library do to meet that need?
